Study Committee to host global warming hearing

DENVER, CO: The Republican Study Committee of Colorado (RSCC) will host an ad hoc committee hearing on global warming. The hearing on global warming is a follow-up to the RSCC's hearing earlier this year on Colorado's renewable and non-renewable energy future.

WHO: Republican Study Committee of Colorado

WHAT: Ad-Hoc Hearing on Colorado's Energy Future

WHEN: Friday April 27, 2007, 1:00pm -4:00pm

WHERE: Senate Committee Room 356, 3rd Floor, Colorado State Capitol

Headlining the hearing's testimony will be Dr. William M. "Bill" Gray, Ph.D.

Dr. Gray is an Emeritus Professor of Atmospheric Science at Colorado State University (CSU) and head of the Tropical Meteorology Project at CSU's Department of Atmospheric Sciences. Gray is noted for his forecasts of Atlantic hurricane season activity, as well as his expertise in the area of global warming.
